

The Holy Spirit is not considered to be God for Mormons. The Holy Spirit is not considered to be a person at all for Jehovah's Witnesses. The Holy Spirit is considered to be the God whom all must worship for Charismatics. Out of all three in the Trinity, the Holy Spirit is the most misinterpreted Being to various religious groups. According to the scriptures, the Holy Spirit is God and a person like you and I. However, the job of the Holy Spirit is to exalt God the Father and God the Son, not Himself. This study will discuss the identity of the Holy Spirit as God and Person. The following questions will also be covered: Who is the Holy Spirit? Is there a verse specifying Jehovah as the Holy Spirit Himself? Are there a good number of verses clearly pointing out the Holy Spirit as God? Can the Holy Spirit feel emotions like us, or is it a force? Doesn't the Greek New Testament show that the Holy Spirit is neuter, not a person? Are there certain aspects that the Holy Spirit can do only as a person, not a thing? If the Holy Spirit is God, then shouldn't we worship Him?
