

This writing is a continuation from the article "Koran Contradicts". The following verses from the Koran will prove that this so-called sacred book of the Islam faith is nothing but a blatant writing of contradictions against its own verses, science, history, and even common sense!

1) Can the sun land itself in a muddy spring?

Yes. “Verily, We established his power on earth, and We gave him the ways and the means to all ends...Until when he reached the setting of the sun, he found it set in a spring of murky water; near it he found a people” (Koran 18:84, 86). “Jalal & Jalal said in their interpretation of this verse that the setting of the sun was in a spring that has black clay in it” (See Al-Jalal alayn by Jalal & Jalal, p. 251 and Al-Tabari, p. 339). “Al-Baydawi’s interpretation of Sura Ya Sin 36:38 was in this manner: ‘The sun runs to settle down in a place that is hers, and that is the decision of the dear, wise Allah.’ He continued on to say that the sun runs for a certain distance before it settles down, and it becomes like a traveler who walks a certain distance” (See Christ, Muhammad, and I by Mohommad Al Ghazoli, p. 143).

No. Science and everyone know this cannot be true. The planet sun is bigger than the earth, and it cannot land on a muddy spring without burning the whole earth to the ground!

2) Do babies come from man's loins and breastbones?

Yes. "Over every soul is set a guardian. Let man then reflect out of what he created. He was created. He was created of the poured-forth germs, Which issue from the loins and breastbones" (Koran 86:4).

No. Science and everyone know this cannot be true. Babies never came from breastbones!

3) Can one man alone produce a baby?

Yes. "And it is He (Allah) who hath produced you from one man" (Koran 6:98).

No. Science and everyone know this cannot be true. No one has ever seen fathers alone giving birth to children; it takes a man and a woman to give birth to a child.

4) When did Allah create the earth?

In six days. “It is Allah who has created the heavens and the earth, and all between them, in six days” (Koran 32:4).

In two days. “Is it that ye deny him who created the earth in two days? And do ye join equals with him? He is the lord of the worlds” (Koran 41:9).

5) Was Jesus Christ killed or not?

He was not. “That they (the Jews) said, ‘We killed Christ Jesus, the son of Mary, the Apostle of God,’ but they killed him not, nor crucified him, but so it was made to appear to them, and those who differ therein are full of doubts, with no knowledge, but only conjecture to follow, for of a surety, they killed him not” (Koran 4:157).

He was. “Behold Allah said, O Jesus, I will cause thee to die and raise thee to myself, and clear thee of those who blaspheme; I will make those who follow thee superior to those who disbelieve, even to the day of the Resurrection” (Koran 3:55).
