

This sermon was preached in early 2004 when our church was located in Anaheim. I apologize for poor video quality. Please send this over to your Catholic friends. I am sure they will be informed by this truth.