

If you do not like hard preaching, then stay away from this message at all costs. The problem with this softy world today is they are used to being comfortable. They try to treat church members nicely and smoothly, but it is all fake on the outside. Modern Christians are fearful of offending people, so they try to approach tenderly. What sinners need is a reall good kick in their comfy sides. The devil succeeded in bringing literally billions to a burning Hell, because he made them feel comfortable. Sadly, a believer is so used to staying comfortable in the ease of Satan that if a preacher was to kick just once, they would freak out and whine that it is so hard when it is actually not. If tears will not change the stubborn saint, if love will not change the stubborn saint, and if prayer will not change the stubborn saint, then those comfortable people should be kicked. Don't listen to this sermon if you got tender feet.

Acts 12:6-7

And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison. And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.
