

Many times Christians feel discouraged, depressed, and discontented with the life that God has given. Trials come up, and we want to moan. We take for granted the possessions we have. Many people desire to leave the Christian life and seek after the world for something better. In reality, when God's children stop and think about what the beloved Father has provided, then they would realize that they are truly blessed with things that are too innumerable to count. It's bigger than billions. Why? The answer is that the billions of blessings owned by the saints are still being sought out desperately by the wealthy, the famous, the religious, and the carnal individuals. What the most rich man wants to have, what the most recognized man wants to have, what the most religious man wants to have, what the most pleasurable man wants to have, is never to be grasped in their hands. Yet we Christians can grasp and still hold those blessings in our hands. What are those blessings that are bigger than billions?

Psalms 40:5

Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.
