Matthew 9:12

But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

Many times Christians pray that God would take away the trials in their lives. Instead, He lets that trouble continue to hurt them. How could such a loving Father allow something bad happen to His own children? Sadly, that was the choice of mankind for all the consequences of his sin to befall him ever since the Garden of Eden. Men brought evil upon this world, not our Lord. But what believers fail to recognize is that God uses the hurt in our lives into something better. Thus, the healing comes from getting hurt. Whether the Lord punishes His sons or challenges the saints, the result always turn out the best in our lives. If a Christian wants to know how good a healing from heaven feels, remember that the requirement is to be hurt first.
