From this verse, you can notice that the end of Christ has three things involved after a sinner gets saved. This sermon will give the three things involved with what Christ finalized. There are three statements that Christ said was the end: "It is Finished," "It is Past," and "It is Done." Through salvation in Him, Christians have gained three finales of Christ that changed our lives for the better and for ever. Thank God that once I bowed on my knees with a repentant heart and cried out to Jesus to save me, He promised me three final transactions. First is my past, which is my salvation secured. Second is my present, which is my daily life forgiven through confession. Lastly is my future, which is my eternity experienced with the bliss of Heaven. Let this thrill the hearts of listeners and help them appreciate more on what the Son of God has done for our lives.

Romans 14:9
