

Many people have the misconception that infants need to be baptised for salvation. However, according to the Bible, there is no case that shows any infant being sprinkled or baptised.

Pastor Schreib goes over the false doctrine of infant baptism.